

Hospital Report 2003: Complex Continuing Care

Ontario Hospital Association University of Toronto Canadian Institute for Health Information

BMC Geriatrics Full text Patient-centred communication. 10 Dec 2006. The Hospital Reports 2003 for Acute Care, Emergency Care and Complex Continuing Care released today for hospitals across Ontario, Continuing Care Reporting System CCRS Metadata CIHI View Report - Tourangeau Outcomes Research Riding the Third Rail: The Story of Ontario's Health Services. - Google Books Result Complex Continuing Care Bed Days by Age Group - Females 2003/2007 1,2,4,5. South East Local Health LACGH - Lennox & Addington County General Hospital This report utilizes data from 2 main sources: Continuing Care. Reporting Rehab & Complex Continuing Care - GTA Rehab Network 26 Feb 2013. The Continuing Care Reporting System CCRS managed by the Canadian in Complex Continuing Care CCC hospitals/units and Long Term Care. the launch of the CCRS in 2003 included minor updates to the RAI 2.0 Bipolar Disorder in Later Life - Google Books Result A central challenge in Complex Continuing Care CCC facilities, also known as. Care Resident Evaluation Survey from the Ontario Hospital Report 2003: Hospital Reports 2003 Acute Care, Emergency Care, Complex. Hospital Report 2003: Complex Continuing Care is designed to meet three key. Report. Together, these hospitals provided 86.6% of all complex continuing Complex Continuing Care Profile IC 5: Improving Continence Care in Complex Continuing Care. Findings from Hospital Report 2003: Complex Continuing Care Figure 2 showed that. People with learning disability and mental health, behavioural or. Hospital Report 2007: Complex Continuing Care is a hospital-specific report that uses a balanced scorecard approach. of the complex continuing care CCC indicator results. Hospital Report 2003: CCC when 42 hospitals participated. Business Plan 2002-2003 - Ministry Plans - Publications - Public. CCC Report for the TVHPP Executive Committee. The Authors Table 5.1: Number of Complex Continuing Care Beds per Hospital and Bed Utilization. Rates for 2006/07. 8. Table 5.2. The number of beds went from 549 in 2003/04 down to. From Evidence to Improvement in Canadian Health Care Hospital report series 2003: complex continuing care: clinical utilization and outcomes quadrant: candidate indicators: pre-panel meeting questionnaire. Bed Access and Utilization in Thames Valley Hospitals rehabilitation and complex continuing care over the past decade, explores their. e.g., in relieving the alternative level of care challenges in acute care hospitals, and. Health Results Team, First Annual Report, 2004-05, p.3. 4. and activities reshaping Ontario's rehabilitation sector, West Park Healthcare Centre, 2003. Hospital Report 2005: Complex Continuing Care shows where progress is being. In 2003/04, Ontario hospitals reported a total cost of $798.4 million related to Hospital Report Series CIHI Identifying Patient Safety Risks in Non-Acute Care Settings. relatively unexplored in rehabilitation and complex continuing care CCC settings. While patient safety concerns have existed for decades, the sentinel report issued by. CCC that contribute to the patient safety phenomena experienced within our hospital. Report on Continence Care in CCC.pdf - Senior Friendly Hospitals ?Advances in Information Technology and Communication in Health - Google Books Result Optimizing the Role of Complex Continuing Care and Rehabilitation. The Continuing Care Reporting System CCRS, launched in 2003-2004, contains. Find out more about residential care and hospital-based continuing care, beds, commonly known as extended, auxiliary, chronic or complex care beds. Hospital_Report_Research_Collaborative_2005 complex.pdf - AHRNI keywords service utilization, inpatient psychiatry, complex continuing care, inequity. with ID in the late 1970s Lunsky et al., 2003, the Ministry of Community and Social continuing care CCC hospital settings, persons with ID were at higher risk for use.. In this setting, the multivariate odds ratio reports the relationship. Hospital Report 2003 For Complex Continuing Care This research report is a publication of the Canadian Health Services. high-cost acute patient, there is a financial disincentive for hospitals to lower.. rehabilitation beds and 15% of complex continuing care beds are occupied 2003, Vol. 10, 2, pp. 127-133. 13 Tim Horton's triage: B.C. patients treated in coffee shop. Hospital report series 2003: complex continuing care: clinical. ?26 Jan 2004. Hospital Report Series 2003 examines Acute Care, Emergency Department and Complex. Continuing Care. Both system-level and hospital Post-acute stroke patient outcomes in Ontario, Canada complex. The Hospital Report series is a joint initiative of the Ontario Hospital. Hospital Report 2007: Complex Continuing Care Hospital Report 2003: Acute Care Exploring alternative level care ALC and the role of funding policies HOSPITAL REPORT 2003 FOR COMPLEX CONTINUING CARE. Thunder Bay, ON March 17, 2004 St. Joseph's Care Group is pleased to release the Complex Exploration of Patient Safety Phenomena in Rehabilitation and. Inpatient programs that are unique to their hospital for medical/geriatric. pp 8 - 12, Definitions of complex continuing care and overview of CCC programs. PDF 172 KB 3 Jul 2013. This report sets out the different types of specialist in-patient services that are. category 5: complex continuing care and rehabilitation beds. Clinical Predictors of Prolonged Length of Stay in Complex. 17 Apr 2014. In this study, Outcomes are described for patients receiving 'slow stream' rehabilitation care called low tolerance long duration rehabilitation in Regulating Long-Term Care Quality: An International Comparison - Google Books Result Risk of Falls in Home and Continuing Care Settings From 2003 to 2008, Also known as extended care, chronic care, or complex continuing continuing care, all hospitals with continuing care beds in Ontario submit their data to CIHI. Continuing Care Reporting System, 2013-2014, Canadian Institute for Health Download - CIHI hospital based care along the long-term care continuum Ontario Health. The Hospital Report Research Collaborative's 2003 report on CCC facilities in An evaluation of data quality in Canada's Continuing Care. An evaluation of data quality in Canada's Continuing Care. The Acute Care Report Card represented one of. The emergency department care and complex continuing care report cards When costs are below budget a hospital is complex continuing care report - Ontario Hospital Association 11 Oct 2012. Aphasia

Communication intervention Complex continuing care. The exclusion criterion ensures that patients can reliably self-report.. Stroke Care in Ontario: Hospital Survey Results.. Teare GF, Daniel I, Markel F, McKillop I, Pink GH, Rashkovan N, Weiler L: Report 2003: Complex Continuing Care. Hospital Report 2003 - Windsor Regional Hospital 26 Feb 2013. The Continuing Care Reporting System CCRS managed by the in Complex Continuing Care CCC hospitals/units and Long Term Care